Subject:	Act now - your FT service is about to be suspended

Dear Barak barak

We emailed you recently to let you know that we had been unable to process payment for the renewal of your Premium Subscription to FT.com and unfortunately, it appears that we have been unable to take payment on your subscription.

A check of our records has shown that the MasterCard credit/debit card, card number 53268492 used to pay for your subscription cannot be authorised, and unless we hear from you shortly with your updated payment details, you will lose your access to unlimited FT.com articles soon.

We need your updated details straight away to ensure that your subscription is not interrupted.

To update your details online:

1. Log in to your FT.com account at www.ft.com/update using your email address.
2. Update your credit card details and click "Save".
If you need a reminder of your password you can use the link below
http://www.ft.com/passwordhelp

To update your details by telephone please call the FT Customer Service team in your region with your new details. If we don't hear from you we'll automatically try your card again in a few days.

We look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely
Kathryn Roberts
